Clinical Preceptorship in
ORTHODONTICS
A Clinical Continuing Education Program

OVERVIEW
The Rutgers School of Dental Medicine, Department of Orthodontics’ Clinical Preceptorship program offers a unique educational experience. This eleven month program includes didactic orthodontic courses, orthodontic case diagnosis and treatment planning, orthodontic teaching, orthodontic research, as well as significant clinical patient treatment interaction.

PROGRAM DESIGN/OBJECTIVES
The participant will provide comprehensive orthodontic treatment (including diagnosis and treatment planning, record keeping, appliance placement, etc.) to multiple patients while also attending orthodontic didactic courses and case conferences. Participants will have the opportunity to become involved in post-graduate level teaching and research endeavors should they choose to do so. A notification of completion is awarded at the end of the program. Completion of the Clinical Preceptorship in Orthodontics does not imply, nor guarantee, entry into an orthodontic post-graduate/residency program.

SCHEDULE
- This program was developed to be an eleven-month experience beginning July 1 and ending by May 31 each academic year; Mondays through Fridays, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.
- Holidays and vacations coincide with the post-graduate schedule.
- Participants will be allowed eight (8) additional days for personal or sick days.
- The school may also close for severe weather events.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION
- Commitment to improve didactic and clinical knowledge in the field of Orthodontics.
- Educational background and previous training.
- Admission interview.
- See also Admission Requirements on page 3.
- There is one position available each year.
EVALUATION OF PARTICIPANT

For satisfactory completion of the program, the Participant must:

- Complete attendance requirements of the program.
- Demonstrate didactic and clinical knowledge in Orthodontics as determined by the director and attending faculty in the Department of Orthodontics.
- Achieve a minimum grade of 80% on a comprehensive written or oral examination at the conclusion of the program.
- Submit a written paper of publishable quality. The Program Director and Participant will mutually agree upon topic.

FACILITIES

The Rutgers School of Dental Medicine is located on the Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences Newark Campus. The medical and dental schools, graduate school of biomedical sciences, and the University Hospital are grouped together on an attractive campus with convenient private parking.
